The Historical Society of Montgomery County has announced the election of several new officers and trustees to its board. After 15 years as president of the Board of Trustees, Ella Aderman elected to step down from the board at the end of 2017. Filling her role, Ed Ziegler has been elected the new president of the Board of Trustees. Also joining the officers are newly elected Second Vice-President Christopher Sperring and newly elected Secretary Janice Boyer. Joining the Board of Trustees in 2018 will be new trustee Nan Huber.
