

Class Diary

- September 8 — School opened in a new building — we saw many changes and new faces.
- September 18-19 — Help me! Help me! Senior pictures were taken.
- September 25 — Would you care to be a patron for Upper Merion's yearbook?
- September 27 — The first football game of the 1958 season. U.M. beat Lansdowne-Alden 20-6.
- September 30 — Senior play rehearsals begin.
- October 3 — Ugh! The proofs arrived. The camera never (?) lies.
- October 17 — Janoski was a star in the Swarthmore game. Incidentally, U.M. won 27-20.
- October 21 — Take a peek and cross your fingers! Report cards.
- October 25 — The Springfield football game was scoreless.
- October 31 — We made it by the skin of our teeth. U.M. — 7, Nether Providence — 6.
- November 14 — There were many cases of swelling around the cranial area when Senior portraits arrived. Many people learned "The Importance of Being Earnest."
- November 15 — On the second night of the play, Lady Bracknell cried, "Where is that tea?" as Jay distracted Lane so he missed his cue. "You must not laugh at me, Earnest," was the apropos statement made by Cecily who almost lost her skirt.
- November 26 — The pep rally went on as scheduled even though someone had a private one the preceding night.
- November 27 — The traditional Thanksgiving Day Game with Norristown! We all went home to eat away our sorrow (Norristown won 31-13).
- December 16 — The model of the new high school attracted much attention. Particularly interesting were the courtyard, greenhouse, and swimming pool.
- December 19 — Headaches and heartaches! Stewart Fund Essays due.
- December 22 — A Cappella Choir Assembly of Christmas Carols.
- December 23 — Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Memorable were the performances of Harold, Jean, and "Babyface" Yuk at our fine Christmas party. A good time was had by all.
- December 27 — Several seniors attended a dance at Plymouth Country Club.
- December 31 — "Happy New Year!" cried everyone at Shirley's party.
- January 5 — Back to school in Christmas finery.

- January 9 — But it can't be! We were measured for those caps and gowns.
- January 19 — Student Government Day.
- February 6 — There was much clowning when the Girls' Varsity Club opposed the Boys' Varsity Club.
- February 12 — The Valley Forge Area Band presented its concert at the new and beautiful Pottsgrove High School.
- February 19 — Model Congress convened at Temple.
- February 27 — May I have one of your name cards? I'll give you one of mine, if you'll give me one of yours. O. K.?
- March 3 — Chemistry term papers due. Bleary eyes.
- March 4 — West Chester State Teachers' College symphonette gave a concert for our enjoyment.
- March 6 — Jean, Winnie, and Kathy attended a tour of the United Nations with the World Affairs Council.
- March 13 — The students and teachers battled over an exciting game of basketball. "We want Mrs. Barr!"
- March 17 — More baggy eyes! P. O. D. term papers.
- March 20 — Upper Merion High School's Band gave a concert. No school for ten days. Hurrah!!!
- March 31 — Did you have a nice Easter? Everyone was a pound or two heavier after eating so many Easter Eggs.
- April 1 — Commencement Oration Contest opens.
- April 2 — Montgomery County Science Fair at Ursinus College.
- April 6 — The Lawrence S. Mayers Memorial Peace Essay due. Maybe our eyes normally look this way.
- April 15 — We visited industries interesting to all.
- April 16 — Model United Nations met at the University of Pennsylvania.
- April 25 — "Blue Hawaii!" What a fitting theme for the prom with Hawaii being admitted as the 50th state recently.
- May 1 — The Senior High Choral Concert was a great success.
- June 3-4-5 — Oh! Senior exams.
- June 9 — Ivy Day.
- June 10 — Tears, tears, and more tears! Commencement and Baccalaureate.
